NINETEEN THIRTY-SIX

Foreword

May you take this "PARROT", as did Robinson Crusoe, for your constant companion and let it speak to you of your days spent in old China Grove High during the year nineteen hundred thirty-six.

DEDICATION

MISS HARRIET REBECCA NEELY

Whose poise, enthusiasm, good sportsmanship, courage, and wisdom have inspired us to go forward, we, the class of nineteen hundred thirty-six, affectionately dedicate this the fourteenth volume of THE PARROT.

SENIOR MASCOTS

RALPH DEAL AND SHIRLEY ANN GRAEBER

“Precious things come in small packages”,—thus we think of our mascots. They are, by far, the most adorable and interesting members of the class of '36. They have helped make this a memorable year and their “mascoting” has been of the best. Our best wishes are theirs for every happiness in life.

The PARROT

ALICE VIRGINIA BOSTIAN

Dramatics Club (2-3-4); Secretary (4); Glee Club (1-2-3-4); Girls, Athletic Association (3); Class Treas. (2); Tennis Club (2); Basketball (4); Marshal (3); Monogram Club (4);

"Allie" has taken an important part in all school activities and has been a popular student. Good luck, ole girl!

GERTIE MAE CARTER

Girl Reserve Club (2); Home Economics Club (3-4); Secretary (4).

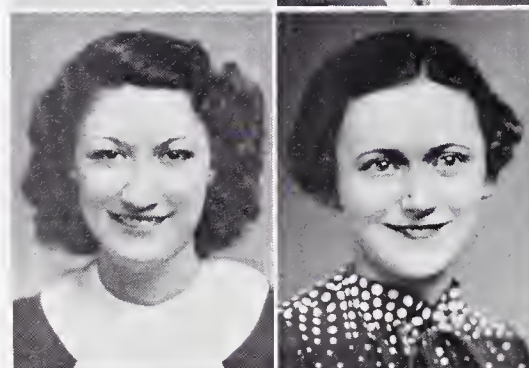

Quiet and reserved; yet always ready to enter into the fun is the way we find Gertie Mae. Her attractive personality and charming smile have won for her a host of friends. Good luck!

HESSIE MAE CHAPMAN

Beta Club (3-4); Dramatics Club (2); Treasurer Home Economics Club (3); President (4); Librarian (3-4).

Loyal, dependable, trustworthy—these three have helped make Hessie an outstanding student. She has the best wishes of the faculty and student body in her future undertakings.

MABEL JO COGGIN

Dramatics Club (2-3), Vice-President (3); Basketball (3-4); Girls' Athletic Club (3); Secretary and Treasurer First Aid Club (4); Monogram Club (4).

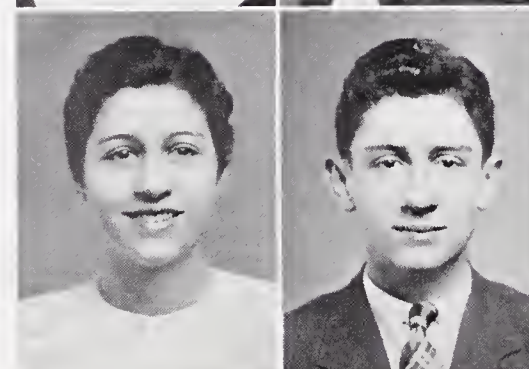

Mabel Jo is a real sport and quite a fun maker. She will certainly be missed on the basketball team for she was a valuable player. Here's best wishes to a most attractive girl!

MABEL IRENE CORRIHER

Dramatics Club (2); Home Economics Club (3-4); Vice-President (4); Beta Club (3-4); Treasurer (4); Glee Club (2-4).

A loyal and studious member of the Senior Class is Mabel. She does her best at all times and her dependability is unexcelled. There is much in store for you ol' girl!

ARTHUR BRADSHAW

Dramatics Club (2-3-4); Pres. (4); Football (4); Hi-Y (3); Capt. Class Basketball (4); Glee Club (3-4); Boys' Quartet (4); Mixed Quartet (4); Tennis (2-3); Debating Team (4).

"Snake" is one of our most versatile members. We shall certainly miss his "line" around school and only wish we could warn his future associates of it. We like you a lot, Arthur.

HERMAN CAUBLE

Dramatics Club (2-3-4); Vice-President (3); President (4); Glee Club (1-2-3-4); Tenor Solo (3-4); Hi-Y Club (3); Chief Marshal (3); King, Halloween Carnival (3); Assistant Business Manager of "PARROT" (3); Editor-in-Chief of "PARROT" (4); Class President (3-4).

Herman has made a splendid leader of the class of '36. He has also worked untiringly on the "PARROT". His work in dramatics and music is outstanding and by his graduation the student body is losing one of its most valuable members.

ALYCE VIRGINIA CLAWSON

Glee Club (1-2-3-4); Dramatics Club (2-3); Assistant Secretary Home Economics Club (4); Class Treasurer (4); Class Historian (4).

Alyce is a dependable friend and member of our class. She has quite a bit of executive ability but we wonder if she won't be engaged in domestic arts even before trying out her commercial training in the business world. Best Wishes!

ELIZABETH MAE CORRELL

Glee Club (2-3-4); Dramatics Club (2-4), Treasurer (4); Home Economics Club (3); Girls' Athletic Asso. (3); Basketball (4); Monogram Club (4).

Neat, sweet and attractive; "Lib" is quite popular with a large group, both boys and girls. Always in a good humor and ready for fun and frolic she is an enjoyable companion. Best of luck!

STANLEY WRIGHT CORRIHER

Glee club (3-4); Beta Club (3-4); President (4); Pen and Ink Club (3); Dramatics Club (4).

Stanley lives to learn. Sociable, energetic and capable, he possesses the qualities of a first-class student. He is one of our best and we are proud of him. Best wishes, Stanley!

The PARROT

HELEN ROSS COX

Dramatics Club (2-4); Beta Club (3-4); Pen and Ink Club (3); Girls' Athletic Association (3); Glee Club (4).

Helen Ross is a little talkative but everyone likes her for her sincerity and frankness. She is quite popular and old China Grove High is going to miss her a lot. May success be yours!

VESTA LOUISE CRESS

Dramatics Club (2-3-4); Treasurer (3); Beta Club (3-4); Girls' Athletic Club (3); Glee Club (2-3-4); Valedictorian (4); Librarian (3); Winner Recitation Contest (2).

In dramatics Louise is the top! Her pleasant disposition and friendly smiles have won her a host of friends during her years at C. G. H. S. She has made a splendid record and we are proud of her.

HASKELL CURRAN

Dramatics Club (3-4); Physical Education Club (2); Glee Club (2-3-4). "Hack" is a happy-go-lucky fellow. We hope you'll "take it easy", and may success be yours!

PHILIP OSCAR DULIN

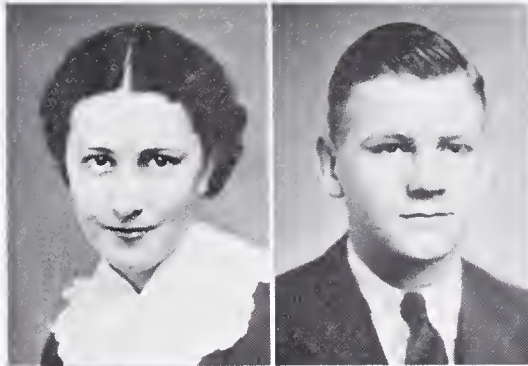

Football (1-2-3-4); Baseball (2-4); Basketball (4); Track (1); Physical Education Club (1-2); Monogram Club (1-2-3-4); Vogue Literary Society (1); Young Tar Heel Farmers (1); Pen and Ink Club (3-4).

When anyone says "athletics", Oscar is always there. He was voted the most romantic member of the class—we wonder why? "Take it away, Dulin".

MARY VIRGINIA HONBARGER

Glee Club (2-3-4); Dramatics club (2); Vice President Debating Club (3); Home Economics Club (4).

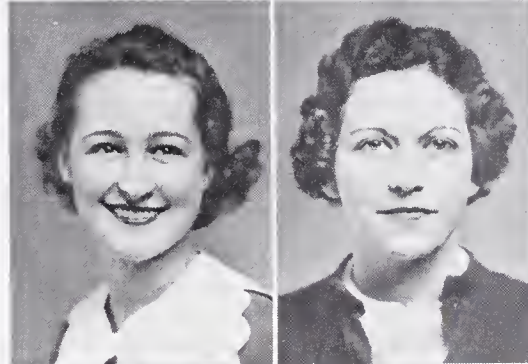

Mary Virginia is quite, modest, and very charming—especially to dark handsome lads. (????) She is a sincere friend and an interesting companion.

JOHN MCKEMMIE CRESS

Young Tar Heel Farmers (1-2-3-4); Secretary (1); Vice-President (4); Physical Education (1-2); Baseball (4); Monogram (4).

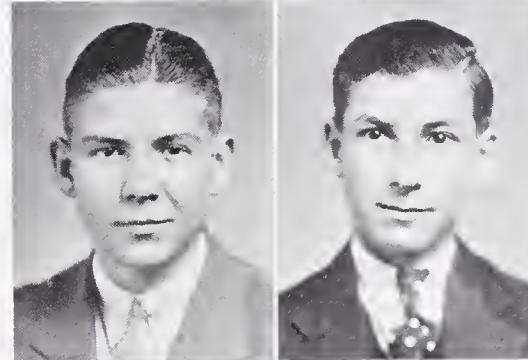

John is rather shiekish at times, but is one of the most interesting members of the class of '36. He is a little mischievous but after once finding his place in English class he does very good work.

LILLIAN CRUSE

Glee Club (1-2-3-4); Accompanist (1-2-3-4); Dramatics Club (2-3-4); Secretary (2-4); Secy-Treas. (3); Beta Club (3-4); Music Scholarship (1-2-3); First Prize County Fashion Show (2); Secretary of Class (2-4); Vice-President of Class (1); Chief Marshal (3).

We can speak of Lillian only in the superlative degree—we think she is "tops". The school deeply appreciates her unselfishness, cooperation, and willingness to share her musical talent at all times. Our best wishes are hers!

RAYMOND E. DEAL

Young Tar Heel Farmers Club (1-2-3-4); Treasurer (3); Boys' Physical Education Club (2); Pen and Ink Club (3); Dramatics Club (4); Agricultural Judging Team (3).

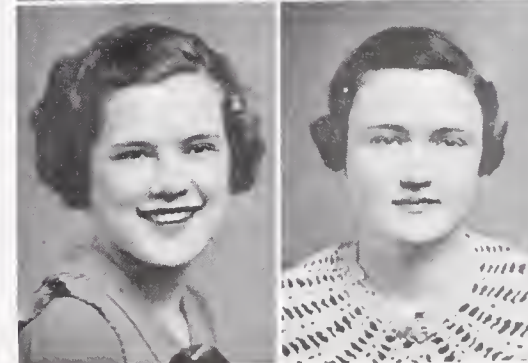

"Midget" is always ready to go with the majority. He has a pleasing personality and is very dependable. We are expecting great things from you, Raymond, don't disappoint us.

MARY SUE DUNHAM

Home Economics Club (1-2-3-4).

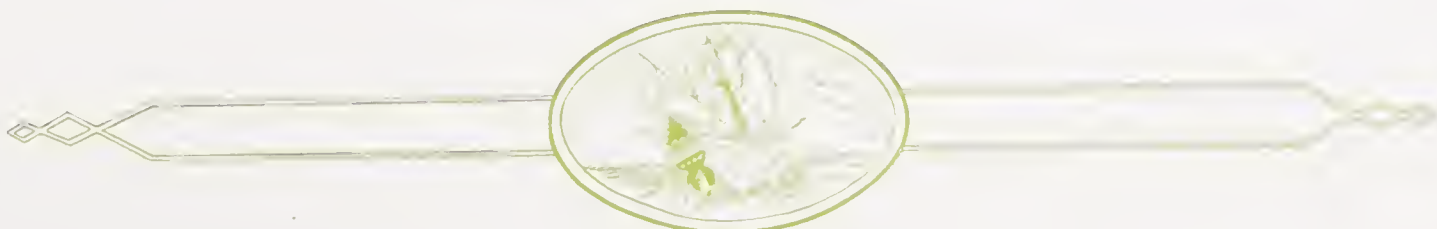

Mary Sue is quite friendly and her bright smile is rather contagious. She was voted the cutest and sweetest member of the class.

DORIS ELIZABETH JONES

Girl Reserve Club (2); Home Economics Club (3-4).

Quiet and reserved is Doris, yet hers is a friendship you will be happy to gain.

The PARROT

EMILY IRENE JORDAN

Basketball (1-2-3-4); Home Economics Club (3-4); Girl Reserve Club (2); Girls' Athletic Club (3).

Emily is a good sport. She is loyal, dependable, and a friend to everyone. She has a cheerful disposition which is quite a valuable asset.

ELSIE JUANITA JORDAN

Girl Reserve Club (2); Home Economics (3-4).

She doesn't have much to say but sometimes quietness is to be admired. The longer you know Juanita, the better you'll like her. Good Luck!

JESSIE LOUISE KOON

Girl Reserve Club (2); Beta Club (3-4); Home Economics Club (3-4); Librarian (3-4).

Jessie is one of our most loyal and dependable classmates. Here's wishing the best in life for you.

MARY I. LOWDER

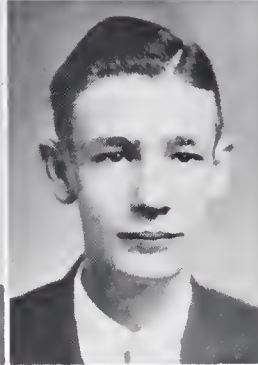

Beta Club (3-4); Dramatics Club (2-4); Treasurer (4); Librarian (4); Salutatorian (4).

Mary is one of our star pupils. She is always willing and ready to do her share. If Mary undertakes anything you are sure of a successful finish.

ALBERT G. MILLER

Young Tar Heel Farmers (1-2-3-4); Secretary (3-4); Baseball (1-4); Physical Education Club (2-3).

Albert is our class "Beau Brummell". He is a likeable chap and has a host of friends. He is certainly loyal and dependable. He was quite a help to the annual staff. Thanks!

R. D. MOOSE

Pen and Ink Club (2); Young Tar Heel Farmers (3-4); Treasurer (4); Dramatics Club (3).

A very mischievous lad, R. D.! He has plenty of fun as he goes along, but we realize he has a serious side, too. We're wishing you much success, R. D.

HARRY H. MORROW

Physical Education Club (1-2); Dramatics Club (3-4).

Harry is a good ole' bashful boy, known and liked by all of his classmates. He seems to be quiet, but you can't always tell, especially did he have a good time at the Jr.-Sr. Banquet. How about it Harry?

CECIL MULL

Unassuming — yet accommodating and dependable—"Mmmm-uu-llll!". We're thinking that you will have a successful future and of course we hope you will.

ROSS OWENSBY

Football (1-2-3-4); Basketball (1-2-3-4); Glee Club (1-2-3-4); Baritone Solo (3-4); Vogue Literary Society (1); Hi-Y (2-3); Tennis (1-2-3); Monogram Club (4).

Sing? Well we should say so! We're expecting Ross to go far in the business world and with his pleasing personality and his ability this should be easy. We're for you, Ross!

RILEY ELAINE PARK

Glee Club (3-4); Dramatics Club (2); Home Economics (3-4).

Riley is one of our most popular members. Her bright smile and cheery disposition will be remembered and we're wishing her luck!

The PARROT

EVELYN ALLIENE ROBERTS

Dramatics Club (2-3-4); Girls' Athletic Association (3); Glee Club (4). "Frosty" is a chatterbox and we all like her for it. She is a willing worker and a loyal member of the class. Old C. G. H. is going to miss you!

GENEVA SLOOP

Home Economics Club (2-3); First Aid Club (4).

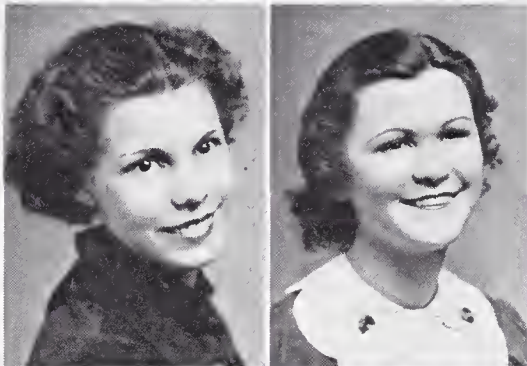

Geneva tends strictly to her own business but is plenty capable of helping others with theirs. She's a fine girl and we're wishing her the best in life.

LOUISE SMITH

Gastonia High School (1); Norwood High School (2-3); President Martha Berry Club (3); Home Economics Club (2); Glee Club (2-3); Pen and Ink Club (4); Tennis Club (3); Monogram Club (3-4); Basketball (3-4).

"Smitty", in the short year she has been with us, has won everyone's friendship. May success and happiness be yours!

JENNINGS TREXLER

Dramatics Club (1-2-3-4); Secretary of Class (1); Tennis Club (1-2-3); Glee Club (4); Monogram Club (2-4).

"Jennings, will you please get in your seat".—You can depend on Jennings for amusement. He is as friendly as he is heavy. Keep it up, Big Boy!

MARSHALL FLOYD WASHAM

Secretary of Class (1); Vice-President of Class (2-4) Sec., Treas. of Class (3); Hi-Y (3); Athletic Editor Pen and Ink Club (3); President (4); Glee Club (3-4); Monogram Club (2-3-4); Football (1-2-3-4) Captain (4); Basketball (1-2-3-4); Baseball (1-2-3-4); Alternate Captain (4); Winner Declamation Contest (3); Assistant Editor "PARROT" (3); Business Manager "PARROT" (4); Chief Marshal (3); Beta Club (3-4); Secretary (4).

Fine record, Marshall! We feel that you have gained much from your high school career because you have put a great deal into it—Your popularity and varied interests have made you an outstanding student. Bon voyage!

LIDA C. SILLIMAN

Dramatics Club (2); Home Economics Club (3-4); Beta Club (3-4); Glee Club (2-4).

Lida is very quiet, reserved and dignified. She has a very winning personality, however, and we'll be very sorry to lose her.

E. OLIVE SLOOP

Dramatics Club (2); Basketball (2-3-4); Girls' Athletic Association (3); Monogram Club (2-3-4); Pen and Ink Club (3-4), Secretary (4); Beta Club (3-4); Glee Club (4).

Olive is capable and efficient. She is quite talented in music and we're looking for a successful future for her. Good luck to a most attractive girl!

MATTIE RUTH SMITH

Vice-President Girl Reserves (2); Varsity Basketball (2-3-4); Captain Basketball (3-4); Beta Club (3-4); Pen and Ink Club (3-4); President Girls' Athletic Club (3); Monogram Club (2-3-4).

"Smith" is our "star athlete" and what a star she is! She is certainly a valuable player and will be missed. She is a good student and very popular.

RUBY PEARL TREXLER

Dramatics Club (2); Home Economics Club (3-4); Treasurer (4); Glee Club (4); Winner of County Fashion Show (1).

Ruby is small, but she is smart. In Home Economics she is at her best. May you go far, Ruby, and may the good things in life be yours!

MARGARET YOST

Dramatics Club (2); Home Economics Club (3); Glee Club (2-3-4); First Aid Club (4).

Margaret is a quiet but very likeable person. She is loyal and true and we feel that she will succeed in anything she undertakes.

CLASS POEM

We hold our standards high as forward we tread
And try to lead ourselves and others gallantly ahead;
We'll face our future bravely, for experiences we have shared
Have helped us wondrously to "Be Prepared".

We can't forget our motto, nor the golden rule
Which we have been taught all the way through school;
As we now leave this place we love and adore,
We hope that success finally will come to each one's door.

To teachers, friends, our school, farewell!
How proud we are of you we ne'er can tell;
Our school we shall continue to praise
And boost and cherish all our days.

—OLINE SLOOP

CLASS HISTORY

To the average reader, no doubt the year '32 is not an outstanding date, but to the senior class of '36 it is indeed important for in the early fall of '32 we began our high school career.

Our class advisors were Miss Breeden, Miss Fleming and Mr. Warlick. Our class president was C. D. Barringer. Although many pranks were pulled we did not stay dumb very long. Our enrollment was nearly 100.

The summer months following our first year in high school were unusually long, for we were anxious to return to school and begin the second year of our journey. This was a year of much joy and happiness to us. We chose again as our class president C. D. Barringer. Our advisors were Miss Bernhardt and Miss Mackie. During the latter part of that year we were hosts to the seniors at a theatre party, the feature being "Little Women".

Our junior year passed very rapidly. The nickname "jolly juniors" indeed fitted us. We worked hard and long for this was a year of importance. The halloween carnival which was sponsored by the junior class was a huge success. Our class president was Herman Cauble and our advisors were Miss Gayman and Miss Barrow. The junior-senior banquet was an event that we can never forget. We had much fun planning for this banquet, and the seniors assured us of its success.

This year, our last year of a long but enjoyable journey has seemed maybe a bit long. We have had our ups and downs and have overcome many obstacles but we have worked together toward our goal. Our capable president for this year was Herman Cauble. Our efficient advisors were Miss Neely and Miss Fleming.

Another enjoyable event of the year was an evening spent in fun and frolic with our mascots as host and hostess. Games were played and contests were held. Later during the evening refreshments were served.

The sophomore class took us to the theatre to see "Captain January". This was a pleasure to each of us.

One of the high lights of our senior year was the junior-senior banquet held at the Yadkin Hotel, Salisbury, N. C. The theme for the evening was "Pleasure Island". The decorations were very appropriate. Delightful music was enjoyed throughout the evening. The entire program was linked with the theme. Our trip to Pleasure Island was enjoyed immensely.

We feel that in this class of '36 we have many valuable members who in the future years will be of much service to the world.

Our journey is not completed. These four years have only been an opening to us of the knowledge to be gained as we go forward into the march of life. We are glad for these years in high school they have taught us many lessons, we have had some experiences which we will never forget and as the day for closing the door on our four year journey, and the opening up the door of the future approaches, we perhaps are a bit sad but with the knowledge we have attained in high school we feel that by using our class motto, "Be prepared", we can overcome all obstacles that come before us.

—ALYCE CLAWSON

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Our graduation exercises were over, and I was enjoying an extended vacation in Florida. On my last day at the beach before my departure home, an amusing incident happened. Totally absorbed in my own thoughts, I was strolling along the edge of the water when I heard a familiar "Hello". I quickly glanced up and was startled beyond expression to find myself standing face to face with my old friend and classmate, Herman Cauble.

After the usual exchange of greetings and questions, I told Herman that I had a very amusing story to tell him. Of course he was surprised and anxious for me to begin when I told him that it concerned our senior class of '36. When I asked if he had visited the famous gypsy fortune teller on the island, he replied that he had not. Herman insisted that I tell him the interesting story. I could see that he was really in earnest about desiring to hear it; so I suggested that we sit down as the tale was rather long. Then I began, and here is the story which I related to Herman:

I entered the satin-lined tent of the old gypsy and she inquired as to what I wished to know. Instantly I thought of my classmates.

"I can show you your classmates exactly as they will be found twelve years from now if you will promise me two things", she said. "They are these: Keep your mind on your classmates only and do not make another request until I have finished".

Then she told me to look into a black instrument somewhat similar to a telescope. I did and saw what appeared to be another darkened room. She began to talk, and I saw vividly the scenes she painted.

"I see your friend, Alliene Bostian, as a successful opera star. Her voice is delighting millions".

"On a prominent Brooklyn street is a large theatre famous for its wonderful stage shows. Arthur Bradshaw is owner of the building. He is also one of the country's foremost comedians. His latest stage 'find' is Oscar Dulin. Oscar's favorite has been put to music. This number, called 'Honey Hush' is one of the most celebrated of its time".

"Gertie Mae Carter is proprietor of one of Chicago's most famous beauty salons".

"I see Herman Cauble as a great radio artist whose favorite pastime is managing his music studio in N. Y. His assistants there are Jennings Trexler and Haskell Curran. These men are now producing the nation's greatest musical comedies."

"At the China Grove High School, which is now one of the largest in N. C., Hessie Chapman is dietician, while Mabel Corriher, Lida Silliman and Harry Morrow all hold positions as teachers".

"Alyce Clawson has changed her name to Wallace and is now head of a large department store in Los Angeles. She has also made a name for herself as a milliner".

"Stanley Corriher is president of the national organization called The Beta Club. He also holds the position of mayor of Mt. Ulla".

"There is a large and beautiful recreational park near Asheville, N. C., which is under the direction of its sole owner, Miss Mabel Jo Coggin. She has as her business manager Robert Reynolds. Robert is also a well-known N. C. lawyer".

"John Cress is one of Rowan County's leading farmers and is still breaking the hearts of the feminine members of the community".

"Lilliam Cruse taught music at a famous school in Washington for a while, but has now given up a brilliant career in music to become the bride of a certain China Grove Hi graduate".

"The column in the daily newspapers 'Successful Romances', now being welcomed by all ages is edited by Mrs. Deal—better known to you as Louise Cress. (Her advice should be well founded)."

"I see Helen Ross Cox as a famous aviatrix. She is planning a solo flight across the continent. Some say that a certain senior of '35 is hoping that she will give up her career—come down to earth and look after him."

"Elizabeth Correll is now making a personal appearance tour of the West. Thousands of the westerners wonder at her remarkable beauty and ability as a tap dancer."

"Raymond Deal has become the South's champion jockey. He also owns a number of thorough-bred racers".

The PARROT

"Sue Dunham is at present head waitress in the tea room of the famous Astor hotel in N. Y. City."

"The nursing profession has claimed Mary Virginia Honbarger. There is a rumor that her masculine patients enjoy their convalescences and sometimes extend their time in the sick wards".

"Doris Jones has given up bookkeeping to take charge of a large kindergarten in Charlotte".

"Emily and Juanita Jordan are rapidly becoming famous for their wonderful gingerbread men which they produce in their 'Ole Time Cookery' located in China Grove".

"As a newspaper columnist, Mary Lowder is certainly a success. Her advice on 'Genuine Weight Corrections' is aiding millions of women in their search for charm.

"In Pinehurst, Jessie Koon is proprietor of a well-known nursery plantation."

"Albert Miller has recently been appointed president of a state-wide land improvement association. He is now seeking a way to improve the western side of the China Grove High School campus."

"I see R. D. Moose as a bus driver. His record with Greyhound lines for the past eight years has been a perfect one so far as accidents are concerned."

"Cecil Mull still retains his desire to be a farmer. He is now managing his own three farms and making quite a success of the job."

"The motor-cycle dirt track championship was recently won by Ross Owensby. In spite of his last smash-up on the track he is still able to sing bass for the 'quivering quartet'."

"The beauty salon in China Grove called 'The Flawless', is owned and operated by a certain Mrs. Safrit, formerly Riley Park. Courtesy and perfect service have helped to make Riley's place popular".

"Alliene Roberts has crashed Hollywood and has taken the place of Mae West, except for her hair. Alliene insists that as her charm captivated the hearts of China Grove's masculine specimen so it will others".

"Geneva Sloop is at present supervising the interior decoration of the new dormitories at China Grove High."

"Two well-known and beautifully decorated buildings on Fifth Avenue, N. Y., patronized by the city's society belles, are owned by Oline Sloop. One is a sports wear shop for women and the other a ladies' recreational center."

"Louise Smith is filling her second two-year contract with United Airlines as hostess on the famous 'Lady Fair'. Louise makes traveling by air pleasant for everyone."

"Paul Smith's days as an athlete at China Grove Hi were not altogether in vain. He is now head football and baseball coach at Cornell University."

"Ruby Trexler is operating a tourist home in Charleston, S. C."

The gypsy paused and for some unknown reason glanced at me very intently. I sat still and proceeded to look into the telescopic instrument.

Then she began again; but as she did so, my mind seemed to stray from our discussion. She said slowly, "Margaret Yost is now owner of a large dress shop in Kannapolis".

The gypsy stared at me as I, apparantly unaware of what she was saying, glanced casually around the room. But I was brought back to the discussion by the mention of a familar name. She drawled on, "Marshall Washam was gradated with honors at Duke University where he was a three-letter man in athletics for four years. Marshall is now coaching football at this same university."

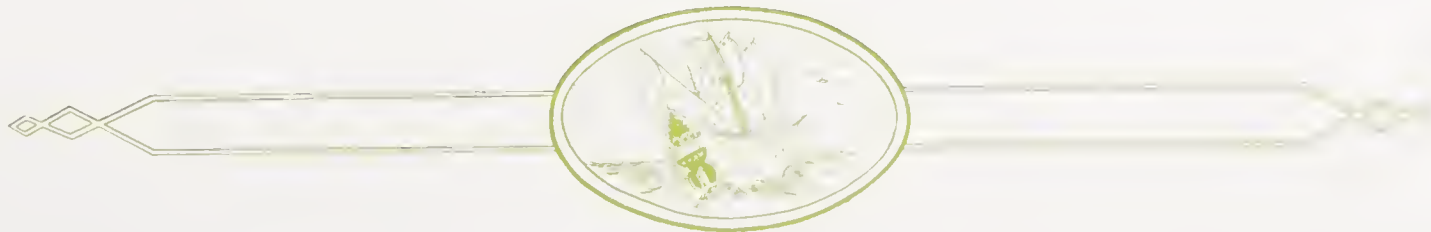

Suddenly I realized what I had been thinking while my mind had been wandering. My own future!

I had forgotten the promise I made at the beginning and exclaimed, "Oh, please tell me my own future." As I said this, I jumped up and dropped the instrument into which I had been gazing. It fell shattering to the floor. The gypsy said to me none too pleasantly, "Didn't I tell you to keep your mind only on your classmates and not to make another request?"

There was no use pleading with her for my own prophecy. As I turned and started from the room she called in a sarcastic tone, "Your own future will be revealed to you day by day".

This ended my story. Herman and I laughed about the unusual facts displayed in it. It is just a story gathered from a gypsy tepee, but perhaps there's some truth in it anyway. Here's hoping!

—RUTH SMITH

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1936, now finishing our high school life of toil, hardship, and pleasures at the China Grove High School, are ready to distribute our most treasured possessions.

To our parents and those who have made it possible for our training here, we give our undying love and gratitude.

To our principal, Mr. Shearouse, we leave our sincere thanks and appreciation for his tireless efforts in our behalf, and for his help and advice.

To our faculty we give our sincere appreciation for all they have done for us and—

To Mr. Shearouse we will a more polite and orderly student body.

To Miss Neely we will two dozen noiseless typewriters and a few brilliant commercial students.

To Miss Fleming we will a few ear-muffs to keep out the noise of the 11th grade English class.

To Miss Fisher we will students who can answer French questions without saying JE NE SAIS PAS.

To Miss Cooper we will a history class of quiet sophomores.

To Mrs. Carrigan we leave a few girls who can cook good lemon pies.

To Mr. Lingle we will a "tone governor".

To Mr. Holt we will a football team composed of big ugly boys with the "do or die" spirit.

To Mr. Brown we will a few country boys who know something about agriculture.

To Mr. Bostian we will students who delight in preparing daily outlines.

To Dr. Stirewalt we will cups and more cups as an indication of the future success of the music department.

To our class advisors, Miss Neely and Miss Fleming, we give our heartiest thanks and praise for their guidance throughout our Senior year.

To the Junior class we give the privilege of following in our footsteps and being as great a success as we.

To the following we give, what may seem small things, but we hope that they will be as valuable assets to them as to us.

Alice Virginia Bostian leaves a goodly supply of suckers to the French class so that they will not be choked on those hard French words.

Arthur Bradshaw wills his dramatic ability to Hazel Owensby and hopes she will follow him to Hollywood.

Gertie Mae Carter wills her paint brush to Theta Cress with the hope that she does a good job on the fountains.

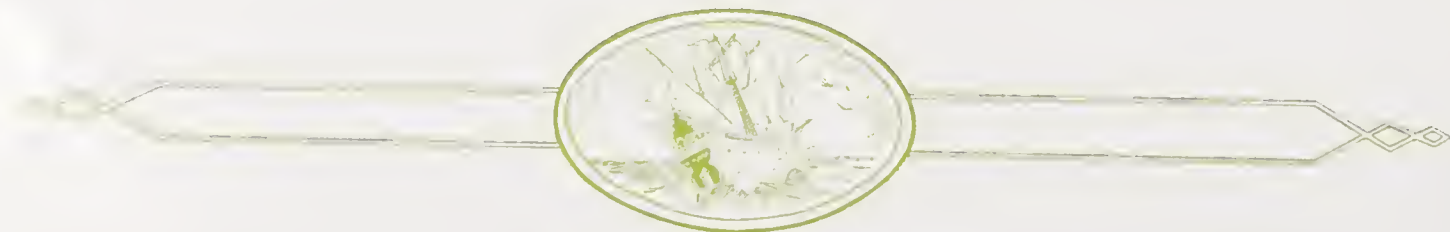

Herman Cauble leaves his musical talent to anyone who has the ability to grasp it and his good looks to Marius Goodnight.

Hessie Mae Chapman wills her modest ways to Dorothy Cauble with the hope that she will keep them up to standard.

Stanley Corriher bequeaths his studious ways to Leon Frye hoping that he will continue to increase the number of "A's" on the school record.

Alyce Clawson leaves to Martha Jane Goodman her courteous ways.

John Cress wills his position as catcher on the base ball team to Ray Correll. "Hold Oscar down, Ray".

The PARROT

Mabel Jo Coggin bequeaths her ability to play basketball to Mary Glover, and her methods of making good grades in French to anyone who needs them.

Haskell Curran wills to any Junior his ability to make the English class roar with laughter.

Elizabeth Correll wills her captivating manners to Kathleen Castor.

To Junior Herrin, Raymond Deal leaves his small statue and his good disposition.

Mabel Corriher wills her power of concentration to Carl Davis.

Oscar Dulin leaves his place on the pitcher's mound to Oscar Cress, but wishes to retain his love for a certain Senior girl. Take her away, Oscar.

Helen Ross Cox leaves her long list of masculine friends to Von Eva Mabry.

Albert Miller leaves his mischievous smile to Martin Turrentine with the hope that Martin is as successful with the girls as he has been.

To Mamie Ellen Jones, Louise Cress bequeaths her ability to give good readings.

R. D. Moose leaves his love for Thelma Goodnight to Harold Hampton hoping that he can keep the red head in tow.

Lillian Cruse bequeaths her pleasing personality to Mary Sue Kimball.

Harry Morrow leaves to Reed McNeely his unanswered History questions.

Mary Sue Dunham wills her sweetness to Virginia Smith.

Cecil Mull leaves a few of his English points in reading to Buford Price with the hope that the total number will be brought up to ten.

Mary Virginia Honbarger passes to Frances Safrit her list of masculine friends.

Robert Reynolds wills his seat in History to Floyd Guffy hoping that Floyd can get one undisturbed period of sleep.

Jennings Trexler would like to keep his love for Miss Fleming, but wills his bus to anyone who can get out of it what he could. He also wills his title of president of the Jac—club to Burton Barger.

Doris Jones leaves her quiet and friendly smile to Angie Kirk.

Ross Owensby leaves his musical ability to Olin McNeely and his athletic ability to John Demarcus.

Emily Jordon leaves her good sportsmanship to Lucille Nesbit.

To Elva Maye Davis, Juanita Jordon leaves her ability to answer History questions.

Jessie Koon leaves her office duties to Helen Overcash.

Mary Lowder passes to Elma Chapman her position as librarian and her extra pounds to Versie Bradshaw.

Alliene Roberts leaves to Elaine Wilkie her willingness to follow the crowd.

Vivian Rogers bequeaths her red hair to Thelma Goodnight.

Lida Silliman leaves her love for Prof. Boston to Hazel Rivenbark and hopes she will make "A's" in Economics.

Geneva Sloop wills her ability to pronounce French words to Charlsye Culp.

Oline Sloop leaves her curly hair to Ora Lee Bostain provided she keeps it combed.

To Mary Austyne Wagner, Louise Smith leaves her tennis racket.

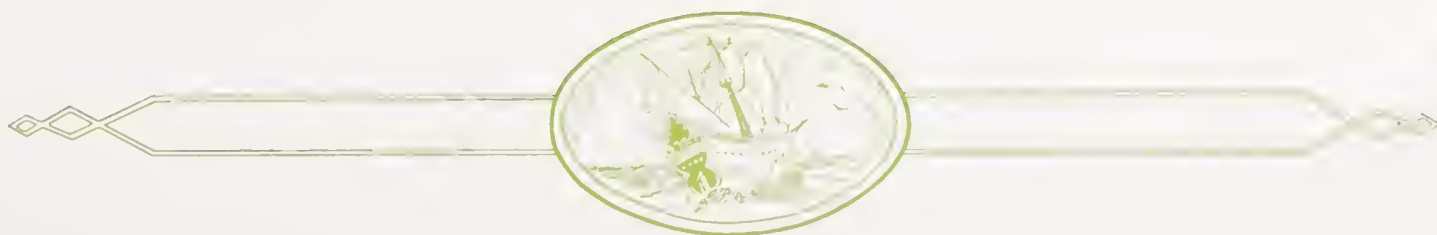

Ruth Smith wills her position as captain of basketball to Versie Bradshaw.

Ruby Pearle Trexler wills her studious ways to Ruby Clark.

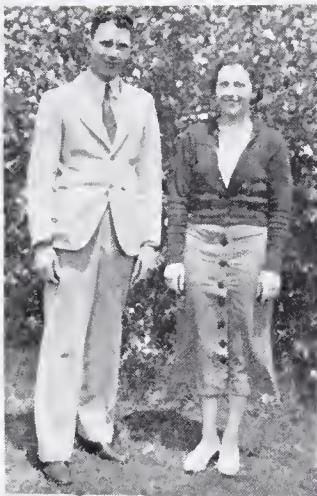

The quietness belonging to Margaret Yost is willed to Mary Virginia Phillips.

I, Marshall Washam, having no talents of great value, do leave to China Grove High my best wishes.

They were trying Mr. Bostian for a petty offense, when the judge asked:
"Have you anyone in court who will vouch for your good character?"
"Why yais, your Honor," quickly replied Mr. Bostian; "there's the sheriff, there."
The sheriff evinced signs of great amazement. "Why, your Honor, I don't even know the man."
"Observe, your Honor," said Mr. Bostian triumphantly, "observe that I've lived in this county for—years and the sheriff doesn't know me! Isn't that a character

Janie Wilkie: "You don't say. Who won second prize?"

"Don't you wish you were a bird, Roy Charles, and could fly away up in the sky?" mused Mary Sue romantically.

"Naw!" scorned Roy Charles. "I'd rather be a elephant and squirt water through my nose."

COUNSEL AND CO-OPERATION

More than any other business or professional man, the funeral director must consider the feelings of those with whom he deals. This requires not only sympathy to comply with the most trivial wishes of his patrons. In this organization we make it a rule that patron's wish is law. Our part is not to dictate, but to counsel and co-operate.

Arthur Bradshaw: "You know, I came face to face once with a lion and I didn't have a knife, gun or anything."

Eleanor Lewis: "What did you do?"

Arthur: "I looked him right in the eye, and he got ready to spring."

Eleanor: "My goodness, what did you do then?"

Arthur: "I walked on to the next cage and looked at the monkeys."

And then there was the Scotchman who bought just one spur. He figured that if one side of the horse went, the other was sure to follow.

Miss Fisher: "Of course, you understand I want my shoes comfortable, but at the same time good-looking and stylish."
Marius Goodnight: "Yes, ma'am. I think I understand perfectly. You want them large inside and small outside."

Bob Reynolds was teaching Miss McCorkle to drive a car. "Of course," she said, "I could never change a tire myself. Why, I can't even lift one. You know they have 80 pounds of air in them in addition to the weight of the tire!"
